

REHABILITATION AIDE – Extendicare Holyrood

Applications are invited for the Temporary (July 2, 2018-January 20, 2020) 60 hour's biweekly position of Rehabilitation Aide at Extendicare Holyrood in Edmonton Alberta. Pay per AUPE contract.

Reporting to the Occupational Therapist, the Rehabilitation Aide provides therapy services in the area of resident treatment and care.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- Assumes responsibility under the supervision of the Occupational Therapist for the implementation and maintenance of resident programming in groups or individually
- Communicate with the Occupational Therapist regarding changes in a resident's functional status as related to individual or group programming (ADL, cognition, physical, function etc.)
- Assists with maintenance and cleanliness of Rehabilitation equipment and preparation of treatment areas.
- Communicates with other team members who provide resident care services.
- Encourages and motivates residents to reach and maintain their maximum potential; records resident participation in programs, maintains resident statistics
- Assists in identifying personal education needs and participate in the planning of educational programs

QUALIFICATIONS

- Read, write and communicate fluently in English
- Good understanding of principles of rehabilitation
- Preference will be given to those with a Therapy Assistant Diploma
- Previous related health care experience
- Physically capable of performing duties required.
- Able to work within an interdisciplinary team
- Have critical thinking skills and be able to problem solve.
- Must be able to work with minimal supervision and accept responsibility for delegated functions and have a strong ability to prioritize and organize tasks.
- Ability to sew and do simple wheelchair repair an asset.
- Regular, punctual attendance
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills

CLOSING DATE

Interested applicants may forward their resume in confidence no later than May 25, 2018

Pam Klassen, OT
Extendicare Holyrood
8008-95 Ave
Edmonton, AB
T6C 2T1
Fax: 780-469-5196
E-Mail: pklassen@extendicare.com